

Genuine Contact™

...providing a holistic approach to organizational success

Cross Cultural Conflict Resolution – 2010 Workshop 3 of the Genuine Contact Program™

Training for Trainers, Consultants, Facilitators and Leaders with Sabine Bredemeyer

People engaged in conflict are usually fixed in one perspective. They rarely ask each other genuine questions. They also tend to lose contact with their whole selves, rendering voiceless a part of themselves thus becoming unable to participate fully and effectively in efforts to resolve the conflict.

The workshop focuses on the readiness of the facilitator to work with situations of conflict with groups. The workshop provides guidance in personal preparation as well as providing the facilitator with skills and a framework for conflict resolution.

This workshop is based on the work of anthropologist Angeles Arrien, author Harrison Owen, and knowledge of the I CHING (the Chinese book of change). The program covers the three energies (dynamic, magnetic, integrated), the four principles of Open Space Technology, the art of detachment, and the six stages of problem solving.

You will leave this experiential, interactive workshop equipped with:

- A practical, holistic process through which you will lead meetings for conflict resolution
- A practical, holistic way of preparing individuals involved with the conflict resolution meeting
- A practical, holistic way of preparing yourself to facilitate successful conflict resolution meetings
- The skills and knowledge to recognize when conflict resolution won't work and other means are necessary
- A complete skill and knowledge module for consultants, managers, and leaders with benefit used on its own or in conjunction with other components of the Genuine Contact Program™
- A peer to peer mentoring circle for ongoing learning

If your particular concern is conflict resolution, we recommend learning to use Open Space Technology, Whole Person Process Facilitation, and the Cross Cultural Conflict Resolution meeting methodology and skills. All three are exceptionally successful in resolving conflict and finding solutions including agreement to implement the solutions. These three skill sets will provide you with a “toolbox” for working with any situations of conflict.
